Question #1 - Can a non-Canadian citizen donate to a campaign?

Who can make a contribution?

You can accept contributions only from individuals who are residents of Ontario. Corporations and trade unions are not permitted to make contributions to candidates.

If your spouse is not a resident of Ontario, they can still make contributions to your campaign. They may not make contributions to any other candidate. Groups such as clubs, associations or ratepayer's groups are not eligible to make contributions.

The members of these groups may make individual contributions from their personal funds (as long as they are residents of Ontario).

Who cannot make a contribution?

The following individuals and organizations are not permitted to make contributions to municipal council and school board campaigns:

- a corporation
- a trade union
- an individual who is not normally a resident in Ontario
- a federal political party, constituency association, or a registered candidate in a federal election
- a provincial political party, constituency association, or a registered candidate or leadership contestant
- a federal or provincial government, a municipality or a school board

Question #2 – Can you include your nomination filing fee as an election expense?

Campaign expenses are the costs that you incur (or that a person such as your campaign manager incurs under your direction) during your campaign. Reminder: the nomination fee is a personal expense rather than a campaign expense. It should not be reported on your campaign financial statement.

Question #3 – Is the nomination filing fee tax deductible?

You are entitled to have your nomination fee refunded if you file your campaign financial statement by the filing deadline. We suggest contacting your personal accountant regarding the eligibility of this fee being tax deductible.

Question #11 – Can Election Signs be placed across the street from a “voting location”.

As per the Township’s Election Sign By-law, no person may place or cause to be placed an Election Sign that is located within 300m of a voting place.

Question #12 – How can someone add their name to the Voter’s List now that Voter Lookup is inactive?

Electors could use the online voter lookup tool through MPAC from May until just recently (August 31st) but there needed to be a cut-off date because MPAC needed to send that data to our voter list/voter kit service provider, Datafix. Now voter’s need to visit us to fill out a form so we can obtain their consent and make that addition/change directly to our Voter’s List. If someone has accessibility with getting to and from the office or a voter kit return station, we can certainly try our best to come directly to them with a form.

Here is a list of our voter kit return stations: <https://www.get.on.ca/election/when-to-vote>
